TIGER 21 Calgary gets new leader
Jennifer Fuhr takes over for Hal Walker

By IE Staff
May 5, 2014

TIGER 21 said Monday that Jennifer Fuhr has become the lead chair of its Calgary group, replacing Hal Walker who is stepping down to become a member of the peer-to-peer learning group for high-net-worth investors.

TIGER 21 formed the Calgary group in the spring of 2011 with Walker as it chairman. The group experienced steady growth and Fuhr joined as co-chairwoman in March 2012.

Fuhr is a successful family advisor who counts numerous high-net-worth families, entrepreneurs, and family businesses as her clients. She founded Family Wealth Consultants in 2011 to advise high-net-worth families in the numerous challenges they face managing their wealth. She is also a frequent speaker on wealth related issues.

Walker is a business and community leader who has had a successful career as a real estate, oil and gas, and stock market entrepreneur and investor. He is also a past chair of the Calgary Chamber of Commerce.

TIGER 21 (The Investment Group for Enhanced Results in the 21st Century) is North America’s premier peer-to-peer learning network for high-net-worth investors. Its over 255 members collectively manage over $25 billion in total assets and are entrepreneurs, inventors and top executives. It has groups in cities across North America.